

ERIS Web Journal 2/2013

Social Inclusion in Connection with Civil Society

Andrej Kállay, Miriam Slaná, Ondrej Botek, Martin Vereš, Lukáš Pavelek

Abstract

The social inclusion is in the connection with civil society one of the most important topics in the area of social policy and social work in Slovakia. The need of understanding and using of social inclusion in social policy is visible in connection with all target groups. In this case is the understanding of civil society from slovak perspective needed, because of the cultural change in the short history of Slovak republic.

Key words

Social inclusion, social policy, social work, society, civil society, citizen